To ensure the effective operation of residence halls and respond to student needs, residential life staff are available during evenings and weekends. The names and phone numbers of the building on call staff are posted in the main lobby of each hall or in designated areas.

Graduate staff are on-call in all campus residence halls from 8:00pm – 8:00am Monday -Friday and on a 24-hour basis on the weekends. While on-call, Graduate staff perform many functions, such as disseminating information to students, interpreting and upholding University policies, and assisting with emergency situations.

Residence Hall Emergency Preparedness

In the case of an emergency or relocation within the residence halls, here are some things to think about:

- The Residential Life staff is here to help! Let the RA, RC, FDM, or RD know if there are questions or concerns, they can help find answers.

Here are some questions to ask them:

- Will I be relocated to a temporary space? How long should I expect to be in the new assignment?
- What should I bring? (including schoolwork and clothes)
- How do I access the new space?
- What type of communication should I expect from Residential Life, and how often will I receive that communication?
- Will I receive financial support?

All residents are encouraged to secure renters insurance for their personal belongings. However, in some cases, the University may partially reimburse for damages. Students will receive e-mail communication during those incidents, but please be prepared to keep all damaged item(s) and ensure you know the cost of the item(s) – either through actual receipts of comparable items found through internet research.
Students residing in Temple University residential halls who need repairs in their units or need assistance with cable should go on-line to the Maintenance Direct system: www.myschoolbuilding.com to submit maintenance concerns. The login information is the following:

- Account Number: 832806354
- Password: owls
- Click “Submit Organization.”

Students should enter their full name, the room/unit number and building name, their phone number, the date and time of their request, and a detailed description of the problem. Be sure to complete all of the above information; missing information may delay repairs.

Check-In and Room Condition Report (RCR)

As part of the move-in/check-in procedure, each student will be required to check the condition of their room against a Room Condition Report (RCR). An RCR is a record of the inventory and condition of the room, suite or apartment. Any discrepancies that a student finds between the RCR and the actual condition and inventory of the room, suite or apartment should be brought to the attention of the Resident Assistant before the student signs the form. A copy is available upon request, and the original is kept on file with University Housing and Residential Life (UHRL). Residents should be aware that they will be charged for any damage done to their furniture or room (including floor, walls, doors, etc.).

Check-Out and Room Condition Report (RCR)

Starting in mid-April, check-out information will be provided to students via e-mail, bulletin boards and on the University Housing and Residential Life website. Please note and follow the check-out information and guidelines that are provided to you. In general, each resident will need to do the following when checking out:

- Clean the room, suite or apartment and remove all of their belongings.
- Complete check-out procedures and move out by the designated closing date and time. Residents should take all personal belongings home, as they will not be able to gain entrance to the halls after the closing date and time.
- After all residents have vacated, staff will perform a final inspection of the rooms and common areas of the residence halls.
Damage Assessment

The cost of damage to common areas and other portions of the building will be divided among the floor or residence hall occupants when the individuals who caused the damages are not identified. All damage appeals must be submitted within 15 calendar days of the date that the bill is received. Students will receive an e-mail at the end of the semester letting them know about any damage billing that they are responsible for.

Residents will be held responsible for the cost of damage repairs in common areas of the specified living area when individual billing is not appropriate or possible. Decisions as to whether damages are billed to an individual or all residents in a specified area (i.e., room, suite, apartment, floor, or building) or to all residents in the facility are made by the University.

University Housing and Residential Life will notify students in writing of damage, repair or replacement costs and will assess all costs of repair or replacement directly to a student's University account.

Keys and Cards

Room keys or key cards are issued to assist in resident safety and the security of a resident's possessions. Residents are responsible for the replacement costs of all lost or stolen keys, key cards and guest cards issued to them. Residents can report all lost and stolen keys, key cards, and guest cards at the front desk of their residence hall.

Renter's Insurance

The University assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to personal property, including theft.
