Welcome Residential Students

Welcome to Temple University’s residence halls. It is our pleasure to have you as a member of our residential community. The residence halls are a vibrant and exciting part of campus life here at Temple. The diversity of our staff and student body provides opportunities for your personal growth while at Temple.

Through partnership with the university community, we provide opportunities for students to be academically successful, to explore who they are and want to be as a person, to be engaged and involved in our communities, to be inclusive of one another and most importantly to be safe and secure in their surroundings.

Meet Our Staff

All areas of Residential Life report to the Director of Residential Life. The following summaries describe staff positions that are here to assist and educate residential students:

Senior Leadership Staff

Senior leadership work collaboratively with professional and student staff members to ensure the highest quality of services and programming are implemented. The senior leadership team participates in ongoing development opportunities to further broaden their skills and knowledge base. All senior leadership members are full-time, live-off staff with emergency on-call responsibilities. The senior leadership team reports to the Director of Residential Life.

Director of Residential Life

The Director is responsible for the overall management of the residential life program within University Housing & Residential Life. This includes the hiring, training, and supervision of all staff, and the development and implementation of educational initiatives. The Director also oversees the development and management of residence hall policies, procedures, and student behavior.

Associate Directors of Residential Life

Associate Directors provide comprehensive management of the overall Residential Life program, specifically in the areas of hiring, training, operations, academic initiatives and community development. Associate Directors supervise full-time, central office and residence hall administrative staff.

Assistant Directors of Residential Life

Assistant Directors provide management of the Residential Life programs within specific residence halls and functional areas including, hiring, training, operations, academic initiatives, community development. Assistant Directors supervise full-time residence hall administrative as well as student staff who are assigned to their area of responsibility.

Coordinators of Residential Life

Coordinator of Residential Life for Student Behavior assists in all aspects of student behavior for residential students, i.e., residential student conduct processes, crisis management, staff training and development and any other student behavioral need.
RESIDENCE HALL STAFF

Resident Directors
Resident Directors (RD) are a full-time professional staff member with live-in responsibilities that include the comprehensive management of a residential life program in a facility ranging from 150 to 800 students on various Temple University campuses or University sponsored housing off-campus. Resident Directors supervise graduate and undergraduate students, and/or full-time administrative staff to create safe, caring, and inclusive learning centered community. Resident Director Office Hours are Mondays – Fridays 10am-4pm in each hall.

Resident Coordinators
Resident Coordinators (RCs) live with students in many of the residence halls. The primary responsibility of the RC is to assist with supervision of student staff, programming and advise Community Council. RCs are graduate students who are trained to assist residents and who report to a full-time professional staff member (Resident Director).

Graduate Resident Assistants
Graduate Resident Assistants (GRAs) are selected based on their skills, interests and abilities, enabling them to assist and advise students in obtaining a quality experience from their time in Graduate Housing at Temple University. GRAs participate in the on-call rotation, facilitate programming for the residents, assist with conflict mediation and run the check-in and check-out process.

Podiatry Operations
On weekdays, many residence hall front offices are staffed by office assistants. The primary purpose of the front office is to serve as a resource for students, e.g., answer general questions, assist with maintenance requests, lockouts, etc... Please contact the front office staff for more information about their services. Front Office Hours are Mondays – Fridays 8:00am - 8:00pm and Saturdays 10:00am-2:00pm.

Podiatry Security Desk Operations
All undergraduate residence halls and Podiatry Complex are staffed with Security Officers (SO) 24 hours a day, 7 days a week during the academic year when classes are in session; the SOs monitor all individuals entering and exiting the halls. SOs have the right to detain individuals for the purpose of inspecting items that students and/or guests attempt to bring into or remove from the residence halls. All residents MUST present their Temple University ID to the SOs when entering the halls and must register any guests in accordance with the resident and guest admittance procedures.

GRADUATE ON-CALL EMERGENCY RESPONSE SYSTEM

To ensure the effective operation of residence halls and respond to student needs, residential life staff are available during evenings and weekends. The names and phone numbers of the building on call staff are posted in the main lobby of each hall or in designated areas.

Graduate staff are on-call in all campus residence halls from 8:00pm – 8:00am Monday -Friday and on a 24-hour basis on the weekends. While on-call, Graduate staff perform many functions, such as disseminating information to students, interpreting and upholding University policies, and assisting with emergency situations.
1. GUEST PRIVILEGE

- Residents must register with their Resident Assistant (RA) to obtain their guest card.
- Residents may have no more than three guests at one time from 8:00 am to Midnight.
- Subject to applicable laws and/or ordinances, residents may have one overnight guest at a time for a period of time not to exceed two consecutive nights and not more than three nights in a seven-day period on a rolling calendar basis. “Overnight guest” is defined as any guest signed in or visiting after the hours of Midnight to 8:00 am.
- Minor guests are not allowed overnight in the residence halls from Midnight to 8:00 am. A minor guest is any person, under the age of 18, who is not currently enrolled as a Temple University student.

2. GUEST CARD

- A resident’s guest card cannot be loaned or given to any other resident. Misuse of this card will result in disciplinary action. If a resident loses their guest card, they may receive a new card at the front desk of their residence hall; replacement cards cost $20.

3. SIGN-IN/SIGN-OUT PROCEDURES

- The resident host must meet their guest with their Temple University ID (TUID) and guest card at the security desk to sign them into their residence hall.
- Guests must present a VALID picture identification (i.e., driver’s license, military ID, TUID) to be held by the security officer (SO) until their host signs them out. Guests will not be signed in without proper ID.

4. SPECIAL RULE FOR GRADUATE HOUSING

Residents may not gather more than 10 people, including the residents, in an apartment/common space in Podiatry Residence Hall without the prior approval of the UH&RL staff member. Residents must notify the UH&RL staff member of the location, beginning time and ending time of the gathering. Residents in Graduate Housing should refer to Graduate Housing and Meal Plan License for information on available family housing.
constitutes a violation of Section 13 of the Student Conduct Code:

The following conduct is prohibited in the residence halls and any University sponsored housing site and constitutes a violation of Section 13 of the Student Conduct Code:

- Possessing pets of any kind within University Housing, except authorized guide dogs and other service animals.
- Bringing any personal bed into University without written approval of authorized UH&RL staff. Beds may not be lofted.
- Storing or locking bicycles in any public area within University Housing. Bicycles will be allowed only in areas designated for them or in student rooms, but then only with the permission of the resident's roommate(s). Further, bicycles cannot block any egress (i.e. doors or windows).
- Relocation or making unauthorized use of University furnishings. This includes, but is not limited to, moving furniture from public areas to individual rooms, removing University furniture from a room or hall, moving University property onto balconies, and using furniture fixtures in a manner for which they are not intended. Moving and consolidating bedroom furniture in a unit into one bedroom.
- Applying paint, fixtures, or adhesive-backed items to any surface in University Housing.
- Personal refrigerators larger than 3.6 cubic feet are not allowed. Personal appliances such as irons, coffee makers, etc. are not allowed. If they have an automatic shut-off feature. Using or possessing any type of oven (microwave, toaster, convection, etc.) in non-apartment residences is not allowed. Microwaves and mini-fridge units are the only type permitted in non-apartment residences. Using or possessing high wattage electrical appliances in University Housing without the written approval of authorized UH&RL staff is not allowed.
- Using or possessing barbecues or gas grills in University Housing is prohibited. For fire and safety reasons, items that may be used to heat or cook food or beverages such as toasters, toaster ovens, hot plates, non-University sponsored microfridges, and electrical skillets are prohibited outside of kitchen areas.
- Playing sports including the use of water guns or water balloons anywhere within University Housing.
- Subletting, selling or sharing University space or selling or sharing University meal plan privileges.
- Relocating to another assignment within University Housing without the written approval from UH&RL staff member is prohibited and may result in disciplinary action, including removal for University Housing. The following actions are not allowed:
  - Converting living room space into a bedroom.
  - Changing bedroom assignments within the apartment/suite, without the approval of authorized UH&RL staff.
- Using University Housing for commercial enterprise or personal gain except under those conditions outlined in the Rights, Responsibility, and Resource Guide.

You should be aware that if you are found responsible for ANY violation(s) you are subject to the FULL RANGE OF SANCTIONS found in the Student Conduct Code, which includes REMOVAL from the residence halls and any University sponsored housing site. Anyone removed from the facilities remains liable for all housing and/or meal plan fees and is not eligible for any refunds for the full occupancy period of the Housing License. The Student Conduct Code can be found online at the web site below.

http://policies.temple.edu/getdoc.asp?policy_no=03.70.12
The following policies apply to Alcohol Use in Graduate Housing:

i. Residents must comply with all applicable city, county, state and federal laws.

ii. Anyone age 21 and above may possess and consume alcohol in Graduate Housing in a reasonable and responsible manner.

iii. Students who are of legal age may only possess alcohol for personal consumption, within the limits of reasonable personal consumption.

iv. Alcohol may not be consumed in common spaces such as hallways and lounges, in public areas such as lobbies, or in outdoor areas adjacent to Graduate Housing.

v. No open containers of alcohol (e.g., can, bottle, cup) are permitted in public areas (including grounds, parking lots and patios/balconies) at any time. A public place is anywhere other than a residence hall room, house bedroom, or apartment.

vi. Tap-able containers including kegs, beer balls, wine boxes, and coolers, as well as devices that permit purchase, storage, and distribution of alcohol in bulk quantities, or that allow unregulated access to alcohol by any means, are prohibited.

vii. Devices or mechanisms that facilitate rapid consumption of alcohol, (funnels, bongs, etc.) are prohibited.

viii. Participation in activities that facilitate or promote the rapid, dangerous, and/or forced consumption of alcohol (i.e. drinking games) is prohibited.

ix. Only current Temple University Graduate Housing residents of legal drinking age are permitted to transport alcoholic beverages into or within the Graduate Residence Housing areas.

x. Anyone observed entering Graduate Housing with alcohol may be required to provide proof of age and the age of all guests.

xi. Students who bring alcohol into a residence hall or possess alcohol in a residence hall are responsible for its legal use. This includes taking reasonable precautions to prevent the possession of alcohol by underage students and guests.

xii. Providing alcohol to minors or intoxicated persons is prohibited.

xiii. No public notices promoting or advertising alcohol is permitted.

xiv. Public intoxication, disorderliness, offensive behavior, or obvious abuse of alcohol on University owned or managed premises are prohibited regardless of age.

To register for TU-Alert, complete the following:

1. Log in to TUportal
2. Click Self-Service Banner on the left-hand side under TU Applications
3. Click Personal Information
4. Select Update Addresses and Phones in the menu
5. Verify there is a Permanent Address type (PR) or add one if there is not by using the form that is accessible at the bottom of the page

Review the information listed in the Phone Numbers section. Make sure you have an entry for Mobile–Personal because TU Alert notifications will automatically be sent to that number. To change the number, click the pencil icon to display the edit window. To add a Mobile–Personal phone number, click the telephone icon.

The TU-Alert notification is Temple University’s communication plan in the event of a campus emergency requiring immediate action on the part of the campus community. Members of the Temple community who wish to have an emergency notification sent directly to their cell phone or landline must register their emergency information. In the event of an actual emergency where immediate notification to students and employees is required, Temple will use TU-Alert to notify the campus community in several ways:

- An e-mail will be sent to all student and employee TU mail accounts
- A voice message and text message will be sent to all registered cell phones
- A voice message will be sent to all registered landlines

To learn more about Emergency Preparedness, please visit the TU Ready site: (www.temple.edu/tuready).
ROOM MAINTENANCE

Students residing in Temple University residential halls who need repairs in their units or need assistance with cable should go on-line to the Maintenance Direct system: www.myschoolbuilding.com to submit maintenance concerns.

The login information is the following:
- Account Number: 832806354
- Password “owls”

- Click “Submit Organization.” Students should enter their full name, the room/unit number and building name, their phone number, the date and time of their request, and a detailed description of the problem. Be sure to complete all of the above information; missing information may delay repairs.

CHECK-IN AND ROOM CONDITION REPORT (RCR)

As part of the move-in/check-in procedure, each student will be required to check the condition of their room against a Room Condition Report (RCR). An RCR is a record of the inventory and condition of the room, suite or apartment. Any discrepancies that a student finds between the RCR and the actual condition and inventory of the room, suite or apartment should be brought to the attention of the Resident Assistant before the student signs the form. A copy is available upon request, and the original is kept on file with University Housing and Residential Life (UH&RL). Residents should be aware that they will be charged for any damage done to their furniture or room (including floor, walls, doors, etc.).

CHECK-OUT AND ROOM CONDITION REPORT (RCR)

Starting in late April, check-out information will be provided to students via e-mail, bulletin boards and on the University Housing and Residential Life website. Please note and follow the check-out information and guidelines that are provided to you. In general, each resident will need to do the following when checking out:
- Clean the room, suite or apartment and remove all of their belongings.
- Complete check-out procedures and move out by the designated closing date and time. Residents should take all personal belongings home, as they will not be able to gain entrance to the halls after the closing date and time.
- After all residents have vacated, staff will perform a final inspection of the rooms and common areas of the residence halls.

KEYS AND CARDS

Room keys or key cards are issued to assist in resident safety and the security of a resident’s possessions. Residents are responsible for the replacement costs of all lost or stolen keys, key cards, and guest cards issued to them. Residents can report all lost and stolen keys, key cards, and guest cards at the front desk of their residence hall.

DAMAGE ASSESSMENT

- The cost of damage to common areas and other portions of the building will be divided among the floor or residence hall occupants when the individuals who caused the damages are not identified. All damage appeals must be submitted within 15 calendar days of the date that the bill. Students will receive an e-mail at the end of the semester letting them know about any damage billing that they are responsible for.
- Residents will be held responsible for the cost of damage repairs in common areas of the specified living area when individual billing is not appropriate or possible. Decisions as to whether damages are billed to an individual or all residents in a specified area (i.e., room, suite, apartment, floor, or building) or to all residents in the facility are made by the University.
- University Housing and Residential Life will notify students in writing of damage, repair or replacement costs and will assess all costs of repair or replacement directly to a student’s University account.

RENTER’S INSURANCE

The University assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to personal property, including theft. It is strongly recommended and encouraged that the student contacts an insurance agent concerning possible protection against such losses or obtain coverage under a family homeowner’s policy. Additional information can be found on our website: housing.temple.edu.
RESIDENCE HALL AMENITIES

Telephone and Internet Services
Every bedroom on campus has one telephone and internet jack for each resident. Using the University telephone service, students are able to do the following:
• Receive incoming calls
• Make free five-digit internal campus calls
• Make emergency 911 calls
• A prepaid calling card is needed to make local, toll-free, suburban, long-distance, and international calls

To obtain Internet access, students are able to do the following:
• Connect your new computer to the network jack closest to your assigned bed
• Log onto: https://getconnected.temple.edu
• Follow the directions for registration

Cable Services
Every bedroom on campus will have access to one cable box provided by Xfinity. This cable box supports the expanded basic programming package (approximately 100 channels) Temple University offer to its students.

Digital service will provide students the option to sign a separate agreement with Xfinity for additional services. The additional service is outside the standard University Housing License and anyone using these services will be liable for any and all charges incurred. Each apartment is equipped with cable boxes for every cable jack in the apartment. If you are having difficulty with your cable, please call COMCAST at 215-992-2712 and tell them you are part of Temple Bulk Account.

Cable boxes and their remotes are University property and must be left in the room when vacating. Failure to leave the cable box will result in a $100.00 replacement fee for the cable box and $25.00 replacement fee for the remote.

Voicemail
Voicemail is provided to all residential students. To obtain voicemail:
• Log onto: https://getconnected.temple.edu
• Click on the box indicating voicemail is desired
• You will receive a confirmation e-mail acknowledging your request. This confirmation message includes instructions on how to initialize your voicemail as well as a temporary password.

Laundry Rooms
Podiatry Community
• Washing machines and dryers cost $0.75. There is currently no change machine in the Podiatry complex.

We strongly encourage you to get involved. Not only is participating a great way to meet people and have fun, but it also provides you with opportunities to develop skills in working with others and a chance to affect the residence halls community. For more information about any of the following positions, please go to our website and look for Employment opportunities: www.temple.edu/housing

GRADUATE RESIDENT ASSISTANT POSITION
Resident assistants (RAs) are student leaders who live in the halls among their peers and positively impact their floors/wings through educational and social programming, advising, and everyday interactions. RAs are selected through an application process and series of interviews, which typically occur in the late fall/early spring semesters.

GRADUATE RESIDENT COORDINATOR POSITION
The Resident Coordinator (RC) is a 10-month, live-in graduate position. They assist with the management of a residential life program in a facility ranging from 100 to 800 students on Temple University’s Main campus. Resident Coordinators also assist in the creation of positive residential communities by supporting student staff and advising student-driven organizations.
