It doesn't take a moment of crisis or a mass of people to make a difference in Residential Life. It takes these single, momentary interactions with students to keep me going as a professional.

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Thank you for your interest in University Housing and Residential Life (UHRL) at Temple University. This is an exciting time to be a part of Temple University and the Division of Student Affairs. We hope that you will strongly consider our office when you take the next step in your career. UHRL strives to be the preeminent housing and residential life organization in the region, and you can be a part of shaping that objective.

Again, thank you for your interest in University Housing and Residential Life. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Kevin W. Williams
Director, Residential Life

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY ABOUT

Temple University, a large urban public research university with an international reach, has been creating knowledge, improving lives, and engaging the community for over 125 years. Temple's superb faculty and broad curriculum of over 300 academic programs provide superior educational opportunities for talented and motivated students without regard to their status or station in life. That tradition of access and excellence has made Temple's student body one of the most diverse in the nation.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL LIFE

MISSION

The Office of University Housing and Residential Life provides an inclusive residential learning environment with programs, services, and experiences that support the mission of Temple University.

VISION

We seek to build transformative communities where students live learning, learn living, and inspire each other.

Working with a diverse and talented group of students and professionals, Residential Life has equipped me with interpersonal, self-awareness, and communication skills that I use all the time in my personal life.

- Steve Dexter
Assistant Director

RESIDENTIAL LIFE ORGANIZATION

DIRECTOR OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE

The Director is responsible for the overall management of the residential life program within University Housing and Residential Life. The Director also oversees the development and management of residence hall policies, procedures, and student behavior.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTORS OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Associate Directors provide comprehensive management of the overall Residential Life program, specifically in the areas of hiring, training, operations, academic initiatives, and community development. Associate Directors supervise full-time, central office and residence hall administrative staff.

ASSISTANT DIRECTORS OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Assistant Directors provide management of the Residential Life programs within specific residence halls and functional areas including, training, operations, leadership, community development, and student behavior. Assistant Directors supervise full time residence hall administrative staff as well as student staff who are assigned to their area of responsibility.

COORDINATOR OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Coordinator of Residential Life for Student Behavior assists in all aspects of student behavior for residential students, i.e., residential student conduct processes, crisis management, staff training and development, and any other student behavioral need.

RESIDENT DIRECTORS

Resident Directors (RD) are full-time, live-in professional staff members overseeing a residence hall, ranging from 150 to 650 students. RDs supervise graduate and undergraduate students, and/or full-time administrative staff to create safe, caring, and inclusive learning centered communities.

FRONT DESK MANAGERS

Front Desk Managers (FDMs) are full-time, live-off professional staff members who work in residence halls during the weekdays. FDMs are responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of residential front offices, not limited to lockouts, mail delivery, and general assistance.

RESIDENT COORDINATORS

Resident Coordinators (RCs) live with students in many of the residence halls. The primary responsibility of the RC is to assist with supervision of student staff, programming, and advise Community Council. RCs are graduate students who are trained to assist residents and who report to a full-time professional staff member (Resident Director).

RESIDENT ASSISTANTS

Resident Assistants (RAs) are trained upper class or graduate students who live in the residential community. RAs work to create a positive environment in three ways: (1) by fostering a sense of community within each hall; (2) by providing assistance to students; and (3) by working with students and staff to ensure the smooth operation of the residence halls. RAs report to a Resident Director or Resident Coordinator.

LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITIES PEER MENTOR

Peer Mentors, like Resident Assistants, support students living on-campus. They serve as an academic resource as students transition from high school to college and collaborate with Resident Assistants to create a positive residential experience. These student leaders work directly with our Living Learning Communities program.

GRADUATE STUDENT WORKERS

Graduate Student Workers assist the Associate Directors of Residential Life by providing direct support to the comprehensive staff recruitment and selection process, including both professional and student staff positions. They also provide direct support to the overall residential experience program, not limited to Community Development, Leadership Development, Inclusivity, and Academic Initiatives. These positions are a live-off position with administrative and creative responsibilities.

BENEFITS AND COMPENSATION

- Competitive salary
- Professional development opportunities and funds, including tuition waiver options are available
- Meal plan throughout the academic year is provided *
- Up to $1,000 in qualified moving expenses*
- A furnished multi-unit apartment, local phone service, basic cable, & parking for RD positions

*Compensation provided for live-in professionals and senior administrative positions

“It’s one of the best choices I made professionally and personally. I work with people who want to see me succeed and encourage me to have new experiences.”

- Siobhan C. Skerritt
Resident Director

“I am Temple Made, and I am a voice for those who go unheard. Temple Made isn’t just a label; Temple Made is a lifestyle, one of hard-work and determination against the odds. Those who come to Temple as coal will experience pressure here, but they will leave as diamonds. And diamonds last forever.”

- James Maguire
Resident Director

“I am Temple Made and I am visionary, driven, and a trailblazer.”

- Pamela Britt
Front Desk Manager

“Our team thrives on the diversity and uniqueness of our entire staff, and we are never looking to fill a mold. Be yourself, question whether the University is the right fit for your own personal goals and personality, and prepare for the possibility of joining a vibrant team of characters who love what they do!”

- Leah Hetzell
Resident Director

TAP INTO PHILLY

Philadelphia is the 5th largest city in the U.S. with the nation's fifth-largest transit system (SEPTA).

William Penn gave the city the nickname "The City of Brotherly Love" because he wanted it to be a place where people could live in peace and harmony free of religious oppression.

The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were both signed in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia is the home of the Liberty Bell and it was named by abolitionists fighting to end slavery.

Philadelphia is home to the country's first library, which was opened by Ben Franklin in 1731.

It is the Mural Capital of the US, with over 2,000 outdoor murals painted around the city.

Philadelphia is home to the country's first zoo, first musical auditorium (The Academy of Music), & and the first Thanksgiving Day Parade.

The Mummers' New Year's Parade began in 1901.

Philly's famous cheesesteaks were invented by Pat & Harry Olivieri (Pat is the owner of the famous Pat's King of Steaks) in 1930.

Fairmount Park covers more than 8,900 acres and 100 miles of biking & jogging trails, making it even larger than Central Park.

Philadelphia is convenient to Atlantic City, New York City, and Washington, D.C.
